

Mendocino Redwood Companies Award more than $100,000 in College Scholarships
14 High School Seniors Received Renewable Scholarships

UKIAH, California (June 7, 2016) –The Mendocino Redwood Family of Companies (Mendocino Forest Products, Humboldt Redwood and Allweather Wood) today announced the awarding of 14 scholarships to area high school graduates. The scholarships, totaling $26,000 this year, are renewable annually for four years, amounting to more than $100,000 in scholarships for the students.

Of the 14 scholarships, 8 were awarded to dependents of company employees, and 6 were awarded to students in the local communities near our facilities. Students applied for the scholarships through their high school student advisory offices. An independent committee of company employees and community members reviews applications and awards scholarships to graduating seniors of outstanding character, academic excellence, and community involvement.
